Dear Parents

Friday sees the last official day at school for Year 11 students. They will, of course, return to school for their remaining exams but there will be no formal timetable for them to follow after the holiday.

It is right that we as a school recognise all of the hard work the young people have put in recently and also their contribution over the last five years to life at Wood Green. To that end, we will be holding a special Leavers' assembly for Year 11 students on Friday from 11.05 a.m. Unfortunately, it is not possible to invite parents to this event, but you will have a chance to celebrate with your child at the annual Awards' evening in the next academic year.

Some students have an examination on Friday morning and, clearly, they will sit that before the assembly (please remind your son/daughter that he/she must attend all examinations in full school uniform). A small number of students do not have an exam on Friday. They should come into school for 11.05 a.m, also in uniform, please.

I anticipate the assembly will be over by around 1.30 pm and the students will be free to leave school at that time.

With best wishes, and sincere thanks to you for your support of your child and the school over the last five years.

Yours faithfully

Mr M Bonsell
Director of Learning Communities
