This is a unique opportunity to play a lead role in our journey and to make real difference to the lives of young people.

We are looking for an inspiring leader who has:

- the ability to inspire students of all ages and abilities
- a passion for creating a strong ethos that enables all students and staff to thrive
- a track record of leading colleagues in a team or across a school to improve standards
- the ability to think creatively, strategically and analytically

Wood Green can offer:

- a school based on strong values: Learning, Effort, Aspiration, Respect, Nurture, Wellbeing
- the willingness to engage in fresh approaches and the capacity to improve
- a supportive team of staff and governors with the potential and desire to be truly outstanding
- a parent body keen to support the school
- a belief in partnership
- a desire to raise aspiration
- an excellent opportunity develop your leadership skills

Wood Green School is a founding school of the Acer Trust. The Trust provides excellent wider leadership opportunities through collaboration with schools that share our values.
